

2nd Annual Crystal Couture February 1 – 4, 2010

The 2nd Annual Crystal Couture started on Monday, February 1, 2010, with a huge opening featuring Aly from Mix107.3 and the ladies of the Little Black Dress Club. Snow may have shortened the event, but it couldn't stop everyone from having a great time. Merchandise from more than 50 designers and boutiques graced the Crystal City runway showing the latest and most fashionable items in the DC metropolitan region.

In addition to the runway, vendors were onsite selling their products at great event prices. According to one designer, three dresses were sold directly following their debut on the catwalk! Event attendees could also catch a closer glimpse of the clothes as the models took time to feature the products on pedestals following the runway shows and in the photo shoot corner.

The fashion frenzy was accompanied by free hair and makeovers from area stylists and face painting from Roger Riggle and Kim Reyes. Roger and Kim also painted one model each every evening showing how creative and beautiful body art can be. Representatives from Lierac Paris also joined Crystal Couture on Thursday evening to provide skincare consultations and free mini facials.

Sponsors Lowe Enterprises, Modern Luxury Magazine, 220 Twentieth Street, the Hyatt Regency, Yelp, American Heart Association's Go Red of Women, Bisnow, Art Whino, and FotoWeek DC helped make this a great event. The weather outside may have been cold, but inside, Crystal City was hot!
